Jerry and Mark Clements

For more than a decade, the Texas Access to Justice Commission has been faithfully working to expand access to justice in civil legal matters for the poor.

The Commission works in partnership with volunteer attorneys, legal services organizations, members of the Supreme Court of Texas, the Texas Legislature and the U.S. Congress to reduce barriers to our justice system for those in desperate need of help. Each year, more than 100,000 individuals receive critical legal assistance that transforms their lives for the better.

Because of you, we can provide Legal Aid with the resources they need to respond to the call of Veterans in need. It is an honor to fight for the men and women who have already fought so valiantly for all of us. When many of those Veterans come home, they face another battle: building a new life while coping with physical and mental trauma. By helping them obtain disability benefits or navigate a path to mental health services, we make sure they receive the care they deserve.

And they're not the only ones. Legal Aid also assists thousands of others in need, including the elderly, disabled, victims of domestic violence, and many more.

Our successes would not be possible without the help you have extended – through your sponsorship, contributions or by donating your time and expertise in handling pro bono cases. We are thankful for your strong, generous support. Together, we can bridge the gap so that all Texans have access to justice.
